Welcome

Would you like to improve your digital skills?

Are you looking to talk with friends or family online, receive help with completing online forms and paying bills, use online banking, or looking for cheaper online deals?

Are you looking to gain the digital skills and confidence to enable you to enter the workplace or engage with your community?

This directory provides details of local groups and organisations that can help with a wide range of digital inclusion activities for all types of learners - from absolute beginners to those looking to develop their existing skills.

We hope that this directory will be useful, helping refer people to appropriate sources of assistance for their digital needs and as a handy list of local inclusion projects and services. We welcome representation from all sectors, including voluntary organisations, the statutory sector, businesses, and social enterprises. If you work or volunteer in digital inclusion, or support people who may be digitally excluded, this network is for you.

CDP is delivered by Cambridge Council for Voluntary Service, soon to be Support Cambridgeshire and is managed in partnership with Connecting Cambridgeshire and supported by Cambridge City Council.

We're a friendly, inclusive network—and we'd love to have you join us!

Cambridge Online

Digital Skills For All

For 30 years, we have been helping people get to grips with their digital devices and fully utilise the power of the internet. During that time, we have worked alongside many of the other organisations within this directory, and firmly we believe that we're stronger together.

We're always keen to hear about new opportunities to provide assistance, new organisations to work alongside, and new locations to host our outreach events. Please read our directory entry on Page 11 for details on what types of support and teaching we can provide - or if you have fresh ideas for a project to make an impact, we'd love to hear about it!

You can reach us at help@cambridgeonline.org.uk or 01223 800450

We're delighted to now be offering support in Peterborough, with the launch of an initial 12-month project in July. This brings our service to the city for the first time, and we hope to duplicate this work in other areas such as Fenland in the near future.
www.cambridgeonline.org.uk/peterborough

We've started to offer face-to-face support in libraries, with free drop-in sessions at Clay Farm and Arbury Court libraries, with more venues to follow later this year. The latest venue info is available at cambridgeonline.org.uk

We're delighted to announce our partnership with Sustainable Tech 4 Good, who enable the data-secure, sustainable reuse of excess tech from businesses to address digital inclusion. While we have been working together since 2020, our new partnership will scale up our impact and enable us to reach many more people with devices. If you are upgrading your IT equipment, please get in touch and see how your excess tech can be reused sustainably and make a positive impact for good in our local community.

Together we can assist those in need, reduce isolation & increase personal opportunity - If you can help, why not get in touch today?

Connecting Cambridgeshire

Helping communities, businesses and residents benefit from better digital connectivity

Connecting Cambridgeshire is a partnership programme hosted by Cambridgeshire County Council and led by Cambridgeshire & Peterborough Combined Authority, working with local councils and government to improve broadband, mobile and public access Wi-Fi across the county. We're helping to make Cambridgeshire and Peterborough one of the best-connected regions in the UK.

But digital inclusion is about more than just infrastructure. That's why we're also focused on making sure everyone – regardless of age, income or ability – can access the digital tools, skills and support they need to thrive in a digital world.

Supporting Digital Inclusion Across the County

We work with local partners and community organisations to help residents get online and stay connected. Our support includes:

- Digital Hubs – We've launched a countywide network of Digital Hubs, based in trusted community spaces, where residents can access free Wi-Fi, use devices, and get friendly help from trained Digital Champions. These hubs are designed to be welcoming, informal places where people can build confidence with digital technology.
- Device and Tech Repurposing – We're working with partner Sustainable Tech 4 Good (ST4G) to create a sustainable pathway for collecting, refurbishing and redistributing unused laptops and tablets. This helps more people access the digital world while reducing e-waste.
- Signposting to Help – Whether it's finding affordable broadband, getting started with a smartphone, or learning how to apply for a job online, we direct people to trusted local support through our website, partners and this Directory.
- Digital Switchover Advice – As traditional phone lines are being phased out, we're helping communities understand the upcoming changes and make sure no one gets left behind. We can provide presentations, community talks and simple guidance.
- Free Public Wi-Fi (CambWifi) – We've rolled out secure, easy-to-use CambWifi in libraries, market towns and public buildings. It's free for everyone – no data plan needed.

Get in Touch

If your group, parish council, or community organisation would like a talk, toolkit or advice about any of these topics – including support for residents or how to become a Digital Hub – we'd love to hear from you.
